Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. This amendment came at the suggestion of Senator Dudycz, and it allows, where a police officer wants to register his or her vehicle to the headquarters that they work, also to be able to take into account and perhaps register the automobile of somebody else who is living at that residence with the police officer. And it comes at the suggestion of police groups. It's really technical in nature, but does change the bill a little bit.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Is there any discussion? Senator Shaw.

SENATOR SHAW:

Thank you, Mr. President. Would -- would Senator Dillard -- it was a little noisy. I didn't -- couldn't hear. Would he explain the amendment again?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Dillard.

SENATOR DILLARD:

Thank you. Senator Shaw, this allows individuals, other than just the police officer, if automobiles are registered in someone else's name at the police officer's residence, to also include those vehicles. In other words, perhaps if the vehicle is under the name of the spouse of the police officer, the spouse's vehicle would also be allowed to be registered at the headquarters of the police department.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Any further discussion? If not, all those in favor, say Aye. Opposed, Nay. The Ayes have it, and the amendment is adopted. Any further amendments approved for consideration?
